Lucy Liu

Producer / Director / Actor

Born to Chinese immigrants in Queens, New York, Lucy Liu has always tried to balance an interest in her cultural heritage with a desire to move beyond a strictly Asian-American experience.

Lucy first appeared on the big screen as an ex-girlfriend in Jerry Maguire (1996), and then waded through a series of supporting parts in small films before landing her big break on Ally McBeal (1997). TV remains a passion, with her recent move to Southland.

The role launched Lucy's film career, leading to appearances in big-budget fare like Payback, Shanghai Noon, Kill Bill: Vol. 1, Lucky Number Slevin, Charlie's Angels feature series and Detachment and The Man With the Iron Fists. Lucy made her Broadway debut in 2010 in the Tony award winning production of God of Carnage.

More recently, Lucy has stepped behind the camera on several films with The Sibs, serving as an Executive Producer on Freedom's Fury, Producer & Narrator for feature documentary Redlight and Director alongside The Sibs on Meena for PBS \ ITVS, a scripted film based on Nicholas Kristof's acclaimed book Half The Sky.
