

G R A I N E Y P I C T U R E S

Short Film Meena & Directors The Sibbs Invited to Speak at the Attorney General Presidential Summit (March 2012)

The Sibbs are praised by Attorney General McKenna for their abolitionist story telling, and continued work on the issue, with interactive campaign for feature film Sold (Jeffrey Brown, 2013)

Rob McKenna

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF WASHINGTON

1125 Washington Street SE • PO Box 40100 • Olympia WA 98504-0100

April 13, 2012

Colin Gray & Megan Aarons
The Sibbs
Co-Founders, GRAiNEY PICTURES
4220 Glencoe Ave Ste. 100
Marina Del Ray, CA 90292

Dear Mr. Gray and Ms. Aarons:

It is my great pleasure to thank you for travelling to Seattle to participate in the "Four Pillars of Hope" Summit on Human Trafficking. While there are numerous films regarding the subject of human trafficking, this is the first time I am aware of, that both a film screening and panel discussion is used as a vehicle for changing social norms and individual behaviors which occurred at a NAAG Summit.

In a roomful of attorneys, academics and policy specialists, your creative skills and ability to capture the impact of human trafficking upon real human beings were a welcome component of the Summit agenda. Moreover, closing out the Summit with a return to the themes explored during the Welcome Reception film screening enabled the event to end with a strong finish.

While my term as NAAG President will end in June, my commitment to eliminating human trafficking in North America will continue.

My hope is that both of you remain engaged in the modern day abolitionist movement, as citizens and film makers.

Sincerely,

ROB MCKENNA
Attorney General

RMM/sr

